

Showcase Quilting

From the collection of: Donna R

To quote Donna: “My mom remains forever in my heart and memories. She was my inspiration to make this quilt. Because of her I learned to sew. When I was eight (now I’m 60+) she was my 4-H leader. I recall crying when I hemmed my 1st dish towel . . . “You sew this. I can’t sew”!!

Now year later, even though my mom died in 1985, she still is my encouraging angel when I sit down at my sewing machine.

Garment making, window treatments, my son’s truck seat cover, sewing for my grandchildren, mega needed repairs; and my best love . . . quilts . . . fill my days.

This fetish for old fashion fabric prints stem from those 4-H and Home Ec. years. When I see, feel and stitch these antique 1930’s type fabrics my memories are tied to my mom; her strengths, warmth, and the ways she helped me feel so special.”
